Chicago Opera On Wednesday; Gift to Mr. Gatti

By Sylvester Rawling.

THE Chicago Opera Association will begin its engagement at Wednesday evening instead of on ruling of the Fuel Administration to Tuesday instead of on Monday. There had been talk of anticipating the is to say, to-night-but when Mr. Campanini arrived from Chicago yesterday, seven hours late, this decision was reached. Mascagni's "Isabean" will be dropped from the first week's bills and the other performances will be moved on & day, "Monna Vanna," with Mary Garden and Lucien Muratore, will be sung on Wednesday. Then, in succession, "The Jewels of ley's new American opera "Azora" at transmortation, Mr. Gatti will devote night, as previously announced. Subscribers for the perforce eliminated Tuesday night performances of the our weeks' season can exchange their
